GUILHEM ROSE - PAYS D'HERAULT IGP
2023

Moulin de Gassac, or windmill over the Gassac River, is the entry line of the iconic estate Mas de Daumas Gassac. Considered by many as the greatest estate of the Languedoc region, "A Lafite in the Languedoc", they are known to be at the origin of the rebirth of the region. Brothers Samuel, Basile, Gaël & Roman are following the legacy of their father Aimé Guibert who, with his wife Véronique, gave birth to this estate 4 decades ago.

A carefully selected group of farmers, who are instructed to farm with organic practices, are providing them with top quality fruits that come in the production of this line of white, rosé and red. Personnel from the estate harvest and vinify in winemaking facilities located next to the plots in order to preserve the most genuine quality of the place.

"Guilhem", Gaelic version of William, is a tribute to a local monastery based at Saint-Guilhem-le-desert whose monks launched the wine production in the region. St. Andrew's cross is here to remind us the Gaelic heritage.

TASTING NOTES _____

"The 2022 Guilhem Airy and breezy, with the grace that makes it a real charmer. This pale-colored, beautifully textured rosé is impeccable in its balance. Pretty floral notes fill out the mid-palate effortlessly. Despite its light color, the 2022 offers plenty of depth and tons of stylish appeal. "
